

"FYI, we're taking this inclusivity thing to the top. The tippy top!"

ABOUT

LUNA DIAZ

Luna Diaz, a remarkable 9-year-old author, has captured hearts with her debut book, "Evely's Sister." Born with a gift for storytelling and a compassionate spirit, Luna has beautifully shared her unique perspective as a sibling of someone with disabilities.

Growing up, Luna has always been deeply connected to her sister, Evely, who faces various challenges due to her disabilities. Luna's tender and perceptive nature allowed her to understand her sister's experiences in a way that many others couldn't. Inspired by their journey together, Luna embarked on a mission to shed light on the unspoken joys and struggles of being Evely's sister.

In "Evely's Sister," Luna masterfully weaves a heartfelt narrative that delves into the emotional landscape of growing up alongside a sibling with disabilities. Through her own candid anecdotes, Luna beautifully captures moments of love, resilience, and personal growth. Her words not only provide insight into the daily realities of caring for someone with special needs, but also highlight the deep bond and unwavering support that Luna shares with her sister.

Beyond her literary achievements, Luna serves as a role model for young writers and advocates. Her courage and determination to share her family's story have not only touched the hearts of readers but have also inspired others to embrace their own unique experiences. Luna's book, "Evely's Sister," serves as a beacon of hope, promoting inclusivity and celebrating the beauty of sibling relationships.

She is currently the Sibling Support Consultant and Coordinator for Through Evely's Eyes, a 501c3 non-profit dedicated to supporting families with children who are on rare medical journeys.
